

COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS AND DETAILS LEVELS A – F

Jobs Nonfiction This book is about the things people make while on the job. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> What do all the people in the book do? The people all make things. Did anyone make food? What food? Yes. They made pizzas. (Student must answer both questions=1 score) What else could someone make at work? Student could name something from the text (chair, bowl, camera, etc.) or give another appropriate answer (tires, computers, clothes, etc.). (1 correct response=1 score)	Level A	Come and Play Fiction A little girl and her doll like to dress up and pretend to be different people. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Find the pages where the girl and her doll are pretending to be doctors. Child finds and points to page 6 and 7. Are the girl and her doll really on the farm? No. They're only pretending to be on the farm. What do you like pretending to be? Student must name one appropriate profession (teacher, astronaut, basketball player, etc.). 	Level B
Pen Pals Fiction Ann and Ray are pen pals and write to each other about things they do in each season. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Are Ray and Ann pen pals? Yes. They are pen pals. What do pen pals do? Pen pals write letters to each other. Who lives in the warmest place? How do you know? Ray lives in the warmest place. The student must make a comparison between any picture involving Ray and Ann in contrasting weather conditions and give an explanation. (Student must answer both questions= 1 score)	Level C	Saturday Mornings Fiction A young boy often likes to help his family on Saturday mornings, but is he really helping them? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> What does the boy help his brother to do? The boy helps his brother to wash the car. Who does the boy like to help most of all? He likes to help his grandma the most. How do you think his family felt when he helped them? The student must make mention that his family felt he wasn't really helping them and give an example from the text (washing the car but spraying his brother, helping his dad clean the bathroom but leaving muddy footprints on the floor, etc.) 	Level D
A Pumpkin Grows Nonfiction This book will help you learn how a big pumpkin grows from a small seed. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Name two places pumpkins grow. A pumpkin can grow in the garden and on farms. (Students must name both=1 score) When is it time to plant pumpkin seeds? You have to plant the seeds in the spring. What can you use a pumpkin for? Student must give one appropriate answer (e.g., to eat, to make Halloween lanterns, to plant the seeds to make new pumpkins, etc.). 	Level E	Marvella and the Moon Fiction Marvella the robot wants to go to the moon. All she needs is someone to take her there. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Who did Marvella ask to help her go to the moon? Marvella asked a bird and a hang glider. (Student must name both=1 score) Why couldn't the bird help her? The bird couldn't help because she said it was too far for her to fly to the moon. Why do you think Marvella wanted to go to the moon? Student may give any answer related to fun, adventure or interest in traveling to the moon. 	Level F